THE NEW YORK HERALD.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 14, 1846.

whether the present and household by one of the control of the con self accordingly. Then it is thought necessary for the witness to be instructed as to her rights, the Court will do no-mad ordered the witness to answer the question put by the District Attorney.

Mr. Scotze (of the counsel for Mr. Mason) made an exception to the decision of the Court.

Q-Wer you at Madame Costello's house afterwards? Answer-Yes, sir. Q-liow leng afterwards? Answer-About a week intervened between the first and ascond visits. Q-lin what part of the house sid the second interview take place? Answer-I do not wish to a second the part of the house with the county of the

""

"Yory well, Mr. Cutting." Mr. C. then sgain reference to the the thind of the owner of the bright of the counter. The defendant's council and the counter. The defendant's council and the council and the the jury yesterday evening. Sealed verdict this morning.

Court Celendar—This Day.
SCERRICK COURT—Not. 90, 103, 77, 23, 11, 65, 37, 113, 6, 8, 24, 101, 111, 134, 181, 133 to 140.;

Samuel Hitchcock, lately deceased in Bethany, has left about $5,000 to be paid by his executor, to the following Societies:

To the American Board of Commissioners of Fereigh Missions. $1000

"American Bible Society. $500

"American Tract Society. $500

The remaining $2,500 to the Congregational Society in Bethany.

"At Mobile, on the 4th instant, peach trees having a seuthern exposure, were already in full blessom.